

Burnside Primary School
Grade 2 Teaching Assistant Advert

To start on 1st April, or sooner if possible, we are looking for a hardworking and committed Grade 2 Teaching Assistant to join our friendly Early Years team. The role will involve supporting children with SEND in receipt of additional funding and therefore the role is temporary and linked to this funding.

A Grade 2 teaching assistant is unqualified and is an aspiring Level 3 teaching assistant. They may have equivalent Level 1 or Level 2 qualifications and/or be working towards their teaching assistant qualification. Please note that this is not an apprenticeship opportunity.

We are looking for:

- A calm, caring and resilient individual with the experience in caring for children
- A reflective practitioner who strives for success
- A diligent worker who goes the extra mile to ensure that the children in our provision are given the tools to be the best that they can be

We can provide:

- A vibrant team of Early Years practitioners who work collaboratively within the best interests of all children
- An inviting Early Years environment designed to ensure that every single Burnside child can enjoy and achieve

Visits to school are welcome and encouraged. An appointment can be made by contacting the school office.
